

Architecting the Beast System: AI Control of Food Supply

June 23, 2020

Forces are working to take total control of every drop of oil extracted from the ground, every fish caught from the sea, and every last bean harvested. It requires an immense technical infrastructure comprising 5G, blockchain, and Artificial Intelligence. This infrastructure has been built and is now being deployed, and we must understand that it is – in the very words of the Department of Defense – an AI weapons system. And that system is going live NOW. Christian breaks it down.
