Truth Comes to Light editor's note:

In this video, Dr. Reiner Fuellmich and Viviane Fischer of the Berlin Corona Investigative Committee share in conversation with a group of international lawyers. This is part 1 of a 2 part session. The second session will be shared here when available.

Below you'll find time markers to help you locate speakers you are interested in listening to. All speakers shared testimony regarding the anti-covid mandates in their countries as well as updates on any current legal action being taken.

Of note was revelation from Natalia Ravanales in Chile about proposed legislation to allow state-mandated euthanasia. A number of lawyers spoke about the dire situation wherein government is increasingly attempting to take away parental rights and make all children wards of the state.

We created video clips of the testimonies by Leslie Manookian and Michael Swinwood. You'll find links to those videos below. Brief transcript excerpts from the beginning and end of the video are also shared below.

Dr. Reiner Fuellmich's opening statement:

Hello. This is the Berlin Corona Investigative Committee. And this kicks off the special international session. It is called International Legal Offensive Part 1. There will be a Part 2 because, we're so many 1/international colleagues that we won't fit into one session. Most of us have been collaborating for a while. Some of us are new. And today we're going to try and find out if there are any special situations that need special attention in any one of the countries who we're going to talk to today. There has been a very close cooperation between us here in Germany, the Italians, the French, the Austrians, one the one hand, and the Anglo-American countries, in particular Canada and the United States. It is going on. It will probably lead to many more class action complaints. It may even result in a special international corona court. We'll see. We'll see where the current lawsuits will take us and where the evidence takes us.

Near the end of this special session, Michael Swinwood asks Dr. Reiner Fuellmich:

“Do you think we can organize enough lawyers to take an approach together to either in the International Rights Tribunal or some other international forum?”

Dr. Reiner Fuellmich replies:

“Yes, I do. In fact, Michael, when we started today’s session – hours and hours ago – we started with the German portion. And there’s a former judge who’s advising us and who has been advising us for a while. He’s a retired judge. He is a – he and his wife are child activists. Very smart man. Very experienced. And we, all of us, are beginning to realize that this is about the children. And he – it is about institutionalized child abuse. Probably much worse...”

This group of lawyers plus this group of experts that we have – yes, we are a very powerful group of people and we can even make it to the International Human Rights Court or the International Criminal Court.”
