Truth Comes to Light editor's note:

Below you will find Reiner Fuellmich's recent interview with David Icke. Some excerpts are provided to give you a sense of the overall tone. This conversation covers a wide number of topics related to our multi-dimensional, multi-frequency reality.

Along with a discussion of the ways humanity has been controlled throughout history and the awakening of so many people because of the global crimes against humanity during 'the plandemic', there are also brief mentions of hidden technology, the secrecy around Antarctica (and Admiral Byrd's expedition), Hollow Earth, underground bases, non-human manipulation of humanity, Rudolf Steiner's (1861-1925) prediction of mind-control vaccines, etc.

Reiner Fuellmich:

"I mean, I get bored with that because I don't want to talk the umpteenth time about how they misused the PCR test in order to create cases that didn't exist. I don't want to talk about whether or not this is personality changing. I don't want to talk about whether this is going to make people infertile. We know that it does.

"We have to step beyond this because we're wasting our time talking about the same things over and over and over again simply because it's so fascinating to see how blatantly they manipulated us and made us believe in totally idiotic concepts.

"If we don't understand the whole picture, if we don't see that, we're not going to be able to get out of this self-created illusion.

"So in that sense, I'm extremely glad that you have put the dots together. It makes perfect sense to me and it coincides with everything that I've learned over the last three years."

"I mean, yes, my friend Dexter Ryneveldt (he's an attorney from South Africa) and I and all the other international attorneys were working on getting out the whole picture, not just the pieces of the puzzle but the whole story, in a legal proceeding. Because this is what people expect. We're talking about justice.

"Ultimately, there will be justice. Justice will have to be done.

"But you won't get justice inside the system, which you have just described because it's totally, it's the spider web. It's totally under their control.

"So we'll have to step outside the system and probably into a system that not just provides the legal framework as we think it should be as lawyers, but also connects with spirituality or consciousness, whatever you want to call it. Step outside the system so that they will not be able to touch us.

“Dexter’s example was, as an eagle you can’t fight a snake [on the ground] and win against it. You can’t come down and fight it at the ground. You have to pick it up into the air, which is where it can’t survive if you really want to destroy it.

“And ultimately, I think this is what this is about. It’s about either them or us. We have to either destroy them or they will destroy us. And this is what people have to understand.”

“But, you know, sometimes it helps to have a kind of a symbolism. For me as a lawyer the most important takeaway from what you’re telling us today is that we do have to go after the gophers.

“I know it’s just symbolism but it shows everyone that it’s us who are calling the shots. And if we don’t want to play along, if we want justice, if we want to hold these people responsible, then we will.

“There’s nothing that can stop us. And if we cut off this conveyor belt, so to speak, we’re destroying the spider web. And all of a sudden we will be able to see who we really are. I think this is really what it boils down to.”

David Icke:

“Well, they’ve been taking over our society over a long period of time and going step by step towards their ultimate goal.

“And I have this phrase, ‘know the outcome and you’ll see the journey’.

“If you don’t know the outcome then everything seems random. When you know what the outcome is planned to be, the random becomes very clear stepping stones to that outcome.

“So the outcome is planned to be, first of all, a different type of human, far more synthetic in nature. This is why synthetic biology is a massively expanding area of science. This is all connected into the jabs as well – as you will have talked to many people about this.

“Up to this point, they have had to control information to manipulate perception because perception is what they’re after. They want a technological way of controlling perception. So they don’t have to do all this manipulation of information.

“So religions served the perceptual indoctrination very well. And now we’ve got science, which is overwhelmingly not science at all in its true sense.

“But what they want – and this is why they’re now coming out with it; they’ve gone from hiding it to sales-pitching it – they want to connect artificial intelligence to the human brain and the human body so that our perceptions will come direct.

“Not manipulated. Direct. You will think what AI thinks.

“And so you have this guy, Ray Kurzweil at Google, a futurist. And people say, he’s got an 80% accuracy in predicting the future.

“Well, if you know what the plan is, there’s a bloody good chance you’re going to be right.

"I mean, people say to me, how did you predict all this? Well, because I uncovered the plan.

"I'm not predicting the future. I'm predicting what the plan wants.

"And if nothing intervenes in the plan it will become the future."

"We don't have to fight the enemy. There's no need to fight. We have to stop cooperating with it. Because the enemy has no freaking power...

"We are the cause of what's happening in the world by acquiescing to authority. We take it back, the house of cards is all over the floor."

"And you know, again, not only can you not control eight billion people... unless you recruit gophers from the eight billion people to impose your will upon the eight billion people. These are police officers. These are the military.

"And when people like that start to realize (and other people in the system start to realize) what they're playing the part of without realizing it, who their real masters are, and the fact that their kids and grandkids are going to have to live in the world they're helping to create – if they would then walk away and stop doing what they're doing, then the whole thing starts to fall apart."

"And so it's a time of great danger, but it's also a time of great opportunity – that we can create true freedom as opposed to the illusion of freedom..."

Connecting the Dots to See the Real Dangers

by Reiner Fuellmich, International Crimes Investigative Committee (ICIC)

October 1, 2023

In this first of two parts of ICIC's interview, Dr. Reiner Fuellmich and co-host attorney Dagmar Schoen talk with British veteran of the alternative media scene David Icke. He is an author, researcher and investigative journalist.

Reiner Fuellmich and Dagmar Schoen question him about his personal awakening process and the beginning of his involvement with the other side of the story, the real side, that initially turned his world upside down. He recounts his startling experiences that, ultimately, broadened his horizon and understanding of reality, as opposed to the mainstream's narrative. These processes led him to leave his old life behind, defying all reprisals, and to dedicate his life to the uncovering of hidden knowledge and truths, beyond the fabricated "reality" we have been fed.

Icke describes in detail the structure and the far-reaching entanglements of a pyramidal organizational structure designed by a small, but very well-organized conglomerate. This conglomerate was, indeed, able to infiltrate almost all areas of our social structures over many years by installing stooges in politics, business, NGOs, etc.

Those who pull the strings, who act in secret, have positioned themselves like a spider in the center of this network, so that they have everything under surveillance. They must maintain their position of power at all costs in order to survive at the expense of humanity – which is waking up to this reality ever faster.

David Icke addresses issues that at first glance seem to have nothing to do with each other, explaining the entanglements and then connecting the dots so that an overall picture emerges of the great deception to which we have been and are being subjected. None of this is an accident, as the last three and a half years have shown us.

The connections are becoming clearer and clearer, revealing that this inhumane agenda is aimed at total control of humanity, combined with dehumanization through technocracy to replace anything human, indeed, creation as a whole. David Icke's work reveals the workings of a persistent and perfidious psychological terror that is being deliberately used against us.

If we realize that we as humanity are vastly superior to this inhumane conglomerate, that it is dependent on us and can only survive through our energy and creative power, then this exploitation and deception will cease immediately. For this, the determined refusal to participate on our part is sufficient. We need only communicate this to these creatures by using the powerful word "No!" And we must understand that we are now at a point in time that even our legal systems analyze as a situation of self-defense.
