Powerful Interview

Vaccines for the coronavirus are currently being developed by companies that are being funded by eugenicist Bill Gates in an effort to “control” the outbreak. But who are these companies and are their products tried tested and true to be safe? In this video Dan Dicks of Press For Truth speaks with vaccines expert Del Bigtree about the science of the coronavirus and it’s vaccine manufacturing programs that are being introduced at the same time that laws are being passed that would force individuals to have to get vaccinated!
