In the following RAIR Foundation USA exclusively translated video, Internal Medicine physician Dr. med. Walter Weber from Germany claims that the much-lauded Chinese coronavirus vaccine could have disastrous consequences. He also joins fellow physicians in raising concerns about the government response to the coronavirus.

The German physicians formed a website "Doctors for Education" where they are documenting data on the coronavirus. The website was formed by Hamburg-based physicians Walter Weber, Heiko Schöning, Marc Fiddike and Olav Müller-Liebenau. Like the physicians speaking out in America against the narrative on the coronavirus, the German doctors have been the target of a media smear campaign.

"Vaccinations must remain voluntary," the doctors state on their website. During a speech where the Antifa flag can be flying in the background by Dr. Weber's Marxist dissenters, he stated in part: "[A]utopsies as proof of those who actually died of COVID-19 are urgently required throughout Germany."

The intense rush to push the coronavirus vaccine, particularly at a time when everything surrounding the virus has become so politicized, has raised major red flags. There are great unknowns about the long term safety impacts of any new vaccine. "Autoimmune diseases could result," the doctor warned. "Cancer diseases could come out of it," Dr. Weber explained. "We will only know that in five to ten years."

"I don't want to go into details, but it is genetically engineered," Dr. Weber continued. "We are the ones who are genetically manipulated. And even the best researchers do NOT know what the outcome will be."

Dr. Weber had strong words for Chancellor of Germany Angela Merkel, claiming that she is treating German citizens as "laboratory rats," and prays that his fellow doctors "finally understand what is happening" so that they can "educate their patients". He says (translated from German by RAIR):

"Mrs. Merkel makes the German population available as laboratory rats for the pharmaceutical industry, and that has to be said very clearly so that the last one wakes up, and I hope that they – that they... that the doctors finally understand what is happening there, and that they enlighten themselves, and that they educate their patients, because if they don't do that in time, then they, too, will be one of the lab rats who will be forcibly vaccinated."

As previously reported at RAIR, some German citizens are particularly worried about the possibility of a mandated vaccination, as was imposed upon the populace during the failed communist dictatorship of East Germany (German Democratic Republic).

What is lying even closer to my heart is this planned vaccination.

This vaccination is... one that will most likely be a novel vaccination. So that you're not vaccinated with weakened pathogens; rather this is a genetic manipulation.

I don't want to go into details, but it is genetically engineered. We are the ones who are genetically manipulated. And even the best researchers do NOT know what the outcome will be.

Autoimmune diseases could result. Cancer diseases could come out of it. We will only know that in five to ten years.

Mrs. Merkel makes the German population available as laboratory rats for the pharmaceutical industry, and that has to be said very clearly so that the last one wakes up, and I hope that they – that they... that the doctors finally understand what is happening there, and that they enlighten themselves, and that they educate their patients, because if they don't do that in time, then they, too, will be one of the lab rats who will be forcibly vaccinated.
