Excerpt from video:

Jason Liosatos: If we handle this properly, I would say, then there could be a huge silver lining and a huge awakening down the timeline, and we could get free as humans...

Dr. Andrew Kaufman: Some of these things, you know, that are going on, they the sort of – the clues that what we're being told is happening is not happening... It's like they're getting much more obvious. Right? So, for example like, why would they be laying off nurses and pharmacists and health care workers? Right? If we're having the worst, you know, health crisis in a hundred years? And why are all the hospitals empty? Right? So obviously that's so obvious and in your face, if you choose to ignore that you're really not gonna figure this thing out at all. But there's a lot of people who are seeing that and they're starting to wonder. And you know there's many many people who are waking up to to the truth of what's going on here. And I hope that keeps happening and accelerates...
