“Fight For You” Lyrics:

*Through the madness and the lies
As they're holding back the truth
No matter what they try
I will always fight for you*

*I will save your innocence
They are trying to remove
I am here at your defense
And I will always fight for you*

*Yes I will always fight for you
I will stand here in the way
And I will not give up on you
I will shield you from the pain*

*In the battle on the field
There is evil on the move
But I hope that you can feel
That I will always fight for you*

*In the darkness of the times
There's a light that shines the proof
It'll soon reveal the crimes*

So I won't stop this fight for you

Yes I will always fight for you

I will brave every attack

And I will not give up on you

I will always have your back

So to every single mother, father

Stand up for your sons and daughters

Do not back down, don't let up

You are all they have for armor

So make this a war to win

Look in their eyes and tell them

That I will always fight for you

I will stand guard at the gate

And I will not give up on you

I will stop each shot they take

Yes, I will always fight for you

I will always fight for you
