ICAN's Attorneys on Medical Exemptions to Masks

ICAN's Attorneys on Medical Exemptions to Masks

by Informed Consent Action Network. ICanDecide.org November 17, 2020

Del Bigtree asked ICAN's attorneys to explain when someone can claim a medical exemption and whether a business can ask for proof of the medical exemption.

ICAN's attorneys, led by Aaron Siri, provided this letter. In short, ICAN has been advised that, upon asserting a medical exemption to wearing a mask, the business cannot ask for proof of the medical exemption.

If you want to complete a self-assessment to determine if you have a medical exemption to wearing a mask, here are self-assessment forms for residents in New York, California, and Texas. If you would like a self-assessment form for another state, please let us know!

Connect with Informed Consent Action Network, ICanDecide.org