Meryl Nass with James Corbett

January 14, 2022

'This is the big one. They're going for broke... I think we may only have potentially until May before one or both of these documents gets voted on' – Meryl Nass, M.D. and James Corbett continue their discussion on the WHO's proposed International Health Regulation Amendments + potentially legally-binding 'Zero Draft Treaty' currently being drawn up in secret meetings behind closed doors.

As the WHO touts the solution to worldly problems as possible through their 'One Health' approach – one wonders if a world in which humans, animals, agriculture, and weather are dominated by state depicted notions of the highest attainable standard of 'health' may secretly be a trojan horse to dominate as much of the sovereign world as possible – usurping power from individual countries and thrusting it into the hands of a mad-with-power agency which seeks to control Earth’s resources, ecosystems, food, animals, and plants.
