We've all heard of flash mobs, but can they be used for more than just organizing pillow fights in Times Square? Join James for this week's edition of #SolutionsWatch as he explores how freedom fighters are using flash mobs to carve out a space for normal human interaction in these increasingly insane times.

“DANSER ENCORE” LISTENER TRANSLATION:

We all want to continue to dance again

Experience our thoughts interconnect with our bodies

Spend our lives attached to a grid of agreements/rules

OH NO, NO, NO, NO, NO, NO

We all want to continue to dance again

Experience our thoughts interconnect with our bodies

(Not) spend our lives attached to a grid of agreements/rules

We are all birds of a passage

Never docile and never obedient

We do not pledge allegiance

At dawn, no matter the circumstance

We come to break the silence

And when in the evenings on TV

Monsieur the “good king” has spoken

To announce our sentence

We do not show irreverence/disrespect

We always maintain dignity

REFRAIN

Car, metro, work, consumption

Self-written certificates and instructions

These imposed absurdities

And woe to him who thinks
And woe to she who dances
Each and every authoritarian measure
Each and every new security measure
Sends our confidence flying
They display so much insistence
To confine our conscience

REFRAIN

Let's not let ourselves be influenced
By all these unreasonable people
Selling fear mongering to the extreme
Causing distress to the point of indecency
Let's ensure we keep our distance from them
For our good mental health,
And social and environmental well-being
Our smiles, our intelligence
Let's maintain our resistance
Against the instrument of their insanity!
