John Hamer is a historian and author who has written extensively on the Titanic conspiracy, revealing how it was switched with its sister ship, the Olympic.

It's a fascinating take, and one that I find more compelling than the official version. (After all, who believes any official story anymore?)

Excellent Documentary

I'd recommend the following documentary as a solid backdrop.

Our Conversation

It's absolutely riveting. He goes through the Titanic's history in chronological order.

I could listen to John for hours
