

Kelowna BC, Canada: Thousands Lined the Streets in Support of Nurses & Hospital Staff as They Walked Out in Protest of Mandatory Injections

Kelowna BC, Canada: Thousands Lined the Streets in Support of Nurses & Hospital Staff as They Walked Out in Protest of Mandatory Injections

by DRutter, Civilly-disobedient content creator from B.C. Canada

September 2, 2021

In Kelowna BC, thousands attended a grassroots freedom rally and protest against “vaccine passports” announced here this week. Nurses and hospital staff walked out to protest mandatory injection with the experimental immune therapy. Government, media, and police denounced the protests, but public support was almost unanimous. Even “fully vaccinated” people are against MANDATORY injections and digital immunity passports. Canadians are pissed at the global technocratic agenda taking shape, and won’t take it sitting down.

Connect with DRutter