Insight into the purpose behind the supposed C-19 pandemic. And, a look at what is “coming” next through careful examination of new legislation.

[TCTL editor’s note: This is shared, not to create fear, but to create awareness. We can use this to empower ourselves and others. If we calmly look at what is planned, we are more prepared to take appropriate action. We are powerful, creative beings. More and more people are waking up every day. We simply need to stand up.
