

Populations Sucked Into the Vortex of...Medical Labels

Take these disasters: pesticides that disrupt hormone levels; plastics everywhere; chemicals in dead processed foods; infant formula replacing breast milk; vaccines that disrupt and shred the immune system.

THEN researchers come along.

They take the symptoms these disasters create and cluster them in groups and put medical labels on them.

ADHD, depression, Bipolar, gender dysphoria...

When it comes to disruption of the immune system from pesticides, plastics, no breast milk, dead processed food, etc., look at this boggling list of "immune system diseases" the medical system has invented:

Autoimmune Diseases:

Rheumatoid Arthritis (RA)

Systemic Lupus Erythematosus (SLE)

Multiple Sclerosis (MS)

Type 1 Diabetes Mellitus

Hashimoto's Thyroiditis

Graves' Disease

Psoriasis

Celiac Disease

Sjogren's Syndrome

Myasthenia Gravis

Immunodeficiencies:

Severe Combined Immunodeficiency (SCID)

Common Variable Immunodeficiency (CVID)

Chronic Granulomatous Disease (CGD)

X-Linked Agammaglobulinemia (XLA)

Wiskott-Aldrich Syndrome (WAS)

Hyper IgM Syndrome

DiGeorge Syndrome

Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) leading to Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS)

Hypersensitivities:

Allergic Rhinitis (Hay Fever)

Asthma

Anaphylaxis

Atopic Dermatitis (Eczema)

Food Allergies

Contact Dermatitis

Other Conditions:

Inflammatory Bowel Disease (IBD), including Crohn's Disease and Ulcerative Colitis

Guillain-Barre Syndrome

Dermatomyositis

Scleroderma

These guys really know how to label.

They're experts.

They can cluster and carve up symptoms and come up with medical names from here to the horizon.

They can resist any attempt to see how pesticides or infant formula or processed foods are the actual realities.

You can see why.

For every disease label, there are medical treatments. Drugs.

Treatments and drugs=$$$.

Plus control over the lives of patients.

There's a much longer list than the one I just published above. It's the total of diseases based on...

Viruses that don't exist.

Brought to you by The Label Kings.

If I were a greedy young psychopath starting out in the world today, I would major in Communications at a prestigious college and write a thesis titled:

"100 ways to recycle death and label it with many disease names."

With that thesis in hand, I would land a very nice starting position with one of the largest pharmaceutical companies in the world.

They would see my value immediately.

Now consider a doctor's point of view. A patient comes in with complaints. The doctor can listen, run a few tests, slap on a disease label, and prescribe a drug, or he can say:

"Looks to me like you have pesticide poisoning. I don't know what to do about that. I don't have a remedy that takes the poison out of your body."

He wouldn't say THAT if you had him in chains and were beating him with a club.

If he had that degree of honesty, he'd be out of business pretty quick. And eventually he'd find himself in front of a state medical board trying (and failing) to keep his license.

The board idiots and sold out quacks would rake him over the coals.

Why not take easy road instead? He closes his eyes, throws an imaginary dart at an imaginary dart board and comes up with a disease name the patient never heard of.

“This is what you’ve got,” he says to the patient. “We have a course of treatment for it. Let’s begin.”

And so they do.

On the long march to nowhere.
