The Terraforming and Depopulation Agenda

Fundamentally this is at the core of much of what we're witnessing in today's world. This transformation has been afoot for centuries, drugging and altering and culling the herd to keep it manageable while the would be Controllers attempt to create their perfect, illuminated utopian world...with us as their slaves.

We're witnessing a whole new beyond-Orwellian stage now in their war to change and control humanity and our environment.

If you're following the trends and social memes that have surfaced over the past few years, an accelerating pattern unfolds. While our skies are sprayed with chemicals creating a consistent metallic haze worldwide, blocking the sun and poisoning our population, plants, animals, water and soil for future generations, our food chain is also being genetically modified with such reckless state-sponsored abandon it makes your head spin.

On top of that, while more and more chemical toxins are added to our food and water, our population is given vaccines and pharmaceuticals to further alter our natural make up and behavior. The media and science promote our 'embracing' of new exponentially increasing technological changes and to eventually literally accept chips in our bodies for social and economic control. If you watch closely you'll see an onslaught of propaganda encouraging us to become "transhuman", a concept heavily promoted in the music industry and Hollywood.

Why Are They Doing This?

This battle for Earth and the seeming preparation by covert powers for their esoteric plans and purposes has been unfolding for millennia. Let's look at a few aspects of this struggle for dominion by generations of power mongers a little deeper.

War On Terra? Yup. Worldwide Dominion Is Their Goal

The Illuminati elite and their minions clearly seek to subdue all peoples of the earth in a great culmination of thousands of years of planning, manipulation and wicked social engineering. As we know, true history has been buried, twisted and rewritten by not just the victors, but the Controllers who play both sides from the shadows to this very day.

However, there is a growing awakening sweeping our planet, and as a result essential facts have been coming to light for some time now. Their once secret (or occult) plans and methods are being exposed and brought to light for all to see.

It's called "the awakening". And it's something they fear.

Psycho-Social Control – The Illuminati Hegelian Dialectic

It is important to understand how they can subjugate whole nations and populations. This is obviously a huge subject as they use many methods including fear, intimidation, outright fabrications, phony suppositions and even witchcraft and literal mind control techniques in addition to their drugging and food altering technologies.

We watch helplessly as governments rise and fall, markets are manipulated to benefit the same greedy Illuminati robber barons, and society gets shredded with an incessant bombardment of mind-numbing hedonist media confusion.

Push Me, Pull Me: The constant stress of continual cognitive dissonance.

- Violence, sex, and rebellion are condemned while being fiercely promoted and popularized at the same time.
- In the name of so-called freedom, restraints from political correctness and phony “security” concerns shackle whole populations, which they accept gladly in the face of threats of phony external threats such as “terrorism”.
- Supposedly representative politicians make sweeping promises and habitually proceed to do the opposite.
- Religions clearly manipulate and easily sway huge masses of fabricated insecure people, subjected to an authoritarian hierarchy and told to love a god who will send them to hell if they get out of line.
- Child abuse is condemned while it’s known to be rampant and unprosecuted amongst the elite and religious orders.
- etc!...

Welcome to Dystopia.

Anyone paying attention can see they’re hitting us from all sides. And that’s on purpose...it drives us to a desired place through the use of what’s called the Hegelian Dialectic. In simple practical terms David Icke explains the Hegelian Dialectic as Problem-Reaction-Solution.

Just observe the deliberate poisoning of our atmosphere with chemtrails and pollutants and unnecessary fossil fuel use, while the hypocritical big game hunting Sierra Club elites condemn us for driving cars or exhaling CO2. Tell me that’s not madness.

Then there’s the medicating of our drinking water through fluoride, chlorine, metals and other additives while we’re excoriated for challenging the government's divine wisdom in doing so.

Look at the restrictions imposed on natural medicines and supplements while they peddle dangerous drugs to the tune of multi-billions of dollars.

And most horridly perhaps, the genetic modification of the very food we ingest for sustenance—while they outlaw home gardening, seeds and small farms!! Hard to consciously digest, so to speak...

All while they have select special organic farms they grow food for themselves.

The Truth of the Matter

The world doesn't have to be the way it is—it's the mess it's in because that's how the manipulators want it.

If Earth's rightful inhabitants were left to natural and conscious laws of Universal design, we'd have plenty of food, free energy, rational and loving public discourse and happy interaction, and great intuitive conscious awareness where we would naturally align with the energy enhancing laws of the Universe...much like iron filings align and get charged by naturally occurring magnetic energy.

But worst of all for the Controllers or "powers that be", we'd be empowered, and they'd be out of a job – and no longer able to literally suck our energy and life forces like the vampires that they are.

But Who's Behind the Illuminati? What's the Plan?

Researchers have been digging, tracing, connecting dots, speculating and formulating for a long time. Truth has intrinsic power and value, much more powerful than the opposing sorcery that tries to usurp everything for itself.

And the Truth is coming out!

That they could be an alien race of trans-dimensionals, or demon-possessed wicked Satanists out to do their masters' bidding is up for grabs. It could be both. But rather than give you a false choice in the matter, why don't you figure it out?

Serious Questions Here

Is there a conspiracy and hidden agenda by powerful entities, or is it all just a coincidence and convergence of essentially accidental and random evolution of influences and events? Would powerful people actually meet together and plan or "conspire" for a self-serving elitist agenda toward their idea of utopia that may not be to the liking of the world's inhabitants? Could they be influenced or controlled to a large degree by powerful alien, trans-dimensional or spiritual entities attempting to execute some esoteric plan to create a home for their own?

Hey, who knows for sure. But ancient history from several cultures repeatedly tells the same story of a primordial invasion of earth by another species who interbred with early hominids to create what is now known as homo sapiens. How you gonna deal with that? With religious myths again to keep it at arms length through hierarchical rigmarole?

Time to get conscious. If we really believe we are all consciousness and essentially parts of an infinite Universe, maybe we better start listening to our hearts, challenging the party line and doing some serious research.

Because we are under attack.

Conclusion

The earth and humanity are clearly being transformed, and it's not by accident and definitely not with our consent, except through our ignorance. If indeed we know the rulers of this world are up to a plan, which you'd be crazy not to believe, then our task is to see what that plan is and do our part to expose and stop it by non compliance and contributing vigorously to the wake up.

The earth is not slowly, but quickly being converted into something other than what it is naturally. The design apparently is that those who survive these manipulated changes will be the support team for these wicked trans-dimensional controllers who can survive just fine in the atmosphere they're creating. In fact, it will probably support their life form better than the current natural earth does.

A very sci-fi sounding plot?

Actually it's not, nor far from many religious teachings. The problem there is manipulated religions keep the masses transfixed on a very narrow, detached narrative, wholly dependent on a self-appointed hierarchy as they wait for the cavalry to save them. While there's clearly truth mixed in with religious teachings, the paradigms are very controlled, limiting and dis-empowering.

Meanwhile the Controllers literally get away with murder.

Any way you look at it, humanity is under attack, and they're pulling out the stops. The more people who wake up to this heinous plot, however you see it, and take conscious action accordingly, the less power they have to execute it.

And as this vibrational change toward greater and greater conscious awareness dawns, like the sun rising after a dark night, the shadows of darkness will surely flee away.

Until then we need to light as many torches as we can!
