

The Aborigines of Australia & Their Fight For Survival: “They’re Burying People at a Rate We’ve Never Seen Before”

“So they are losing people at a rate they’ve never, ever experienced in their lives. And we are seeing our people getting buried at a rapid rate across the country. It’s out of control. I’ve never seen this many funerals in my life.

I had a brother who was a great footballer. He was my age. He died of a heart attack late last year. Just dropped. It’s off the Richter scale. We are seeing our people dying at a rate that’s just phenomenal. Never, ever seen anything like this before.

And from the Central Desert region, I spoke with a health worker who was a part of a team that was monitoring the reactions and the response to everybody getting this jab. And she said to me, there’s five different areas that they monitor in the Central Desert region. And she looks after one of those five areas. And in her regional area, she said 27 elders died within the first four hours of getting the first jab.”

“Now there’s book written by a doctor in the 80s... But he was a doctor doing vaccinations in the 80s... what he identified – fifty percent of the Aboriginal people who were vaccinated in the 80s died. Children.”

~Lurnpa (David Cole)

“What we didn’t know at that time is what Katherine Watt found out, and what is also based on Brook Jackson’s testimony, and on, of course, the defense of Pfizer in that lawsuit, that the DoD, that the Department of Defense is behind this. So this is a military operation and I believe it’s not just a military operation in the US, it is also a military operation everywhere else.

In Germany, we have seen the military early on, in late 2020 when the so-called vaccination campaign started. We’ve seen the army protecting the vials. Not conducting the actual – not giving the shots – but protecting the vials. So this is what it all boils down to. It’s a military operation, and according to Katherine Watt’s testimony there is intentional, INTENTIONAL, killing going on.”

In today’s episode of ICIC, Dr Reiner Fuellmich talks to David

Lurnpa Cole, an Aborigine from Australia, well-known blogger Bernie Bebenroth, known as “Bernie from Australia” and Iris Tassie Tiger Richter about the outrageous events in Australia over the last three years.

The government measures in Australia have been very harsh, and the vaccination pressure very high. Especially the indigenous population, the Aborigines, were put under massive pressure and forced to vaccinate.

David Lumpa Cole approached us with the cry for help that his people were suffering greatly because of the vaccinations and that the deaths were massively increasing.

The accounts of the three Australians are very stirring and shed light on the dictatorial actions of the Australian government and the suffering of the people and their indigenous brothers and sisters in a very clear and emotional way.
