What are the most critical threats we collectively face? If we cannot breath without inhaling the highly toxic heavy metal and chemical fallout from the covert climate engineering assault, how long can we possibly expect to retain our health? How long can the environment survive under such conditions? How many are now willing to reconsider their priorities? What acts of desperation can we expect from the tyrannical halls of power? Where do we go from here? The latest installment of Global Alert News is below.
