

The Exploitation of Our Natural Desire to Hope: 'Operation Trust' & Operation 'Trust the Plan'

Truth Comes to Light editor's commentary:

Earlier today, I posted the David Icke video where he talks about Q-Anon as a psyop. Now I am sharing the video below, created by HighImpactFlix.

As much as I respect all freedom seekers and understand the genuine love and courage of 'patriots', it's important that we pay attention to how these beautiful aspects of our humanity are being manipulated by those who seek to control us.

From the conversations I've had with people who followed Q, it seems many began to see for the first time that there are very dark forces controlling us through governments and their militaries. This called them to start researching so that they could understand more. Some read with interest without seeing Qanon as some sort of authority – but simply one more group of people seeking the truth. They did not pin their hopes on timelines or 'secret intel'. For those people, the Q phenomenon remains a part of their personal wake up call.

However, there were also plenty who counted the words of Qanon leadership to tell them what to do. Many tied this in with their faith in God and felt that those who didn't follow Q were unenlightened and unpatriotic.

We have all been duped many times within this life experience. As truth seekers, we look for answers and seek information and insights that resonate with what we sense to really be true. How many of us have found ourselves participating in religions, military operations, political campaigns, environmental activist groups, charities, etc. that we later learned were not what they first appeared to be when we joined? How many of us had to heal from the complete disorientation of being raised in abusive families controlled by people we tried to respect and love?

Part of who we are is our beautiful vision of freedom for all, our desire for peace without bloodshed, our longing to participate in a society and within families that we can truly trust. Those who seek to control us, know that about us. They also know we are not stupid, so they must include a high percentage of truth in the propaganda mix or we wouldn't fall for it.

It is not just about mind control but very much about heart control via emotional manipulation and blackmail. All religions and all governments/militaries use loyalty, belief, trust, self sacrifice and love in their "spells" that ask for our obedience. Many families and tribes do the same thing. Real love never requires blind obedience. Real love respects freedom.

None of us has all the answers. Each of us is one of many partially-blind humans touching the elephant. Together, in our dedication to truth and freedom, we will see the whole elephant that is standing here in our living room. Together we will reimagine and change the script that has been dominating this world for a very, very long time.
