The Gray Man
Reads the New York Times
He watches CNN
So he knows who the traitors are:
The ones who refuse the vaccine
And want to infect the world
The night is long
And only the injection will deliver us from evil
The Gray Man is beginning to believe
The virus has always been here
And only by some miracle have we managed
To avoid it until now
The violators must be punished
They must be thrown into camps
The kinder and gentler age is over
Now comes the hammer of reason and science
And if the backward and uneducated cannot grasp
The fundamentals they will pay the price
They will be sacrificed on behalf of all of humanity
And the survival of the species
The Gray Man reads the New York Times
He watches CNN
The night is long
But the injection will deliver us from evil
It is unthinkable that the State itself is corrupt

And is controlled by banks

It is unthinkable that the virus itself

Does not exist

And a story about a phantom is the pretext

For a tyranny behind the bland assurances of bureaucrats

The Gray Man reads the New York Times

He watches CNN

He understands the phrase "anti-vaxxers"

Applies to unhinged lunatics

Who cling bitterly to their guns and religion

In the hills of unincorporated territories

The military must be called in

To hunt them down and put them in camps

Where data can be collected from certified medical experiments

The prisoners must wear prominent marks of their status

Civilization when all is said and done

Is a system

The system is well organized

It favors The Good

If no one who is official can be trusted

Then there is chaos

Thus and therefore and ipso facto

The mandates can be deduced

The Gray Man reads the New York Times

He watches CNN

He knows what he knows

He is eager to serve the force that drives progress

He will be outfitted with government currency

And codes of behavior

This is a permanent emergency

The police and the courts and judges are backing him up
We are biological machines awaiting signals
The night is long
The injection will deliver us from evil
The Pope can be trusted
He is a banker
The Gray Man reads the New York Times
He watches CNN
He knows all there is to know
There is no other information
That which has been censored and blacked out
Would have eaten into his certainty
It would have served no other purpose
It stands to reason that corporations and governments
Are working together to filter out contrarian Impulses that spring from Lower branches of the evolutionary tree
Give us your huddled masses
Yearning to be vaccinated
The Gray Man
Knows what he knows
He reads the New York Times
He watches CNN
The ship is coming into the harbor of safety
Gold bars are moving in tunnels under the streets of New York
In coordination with Swiss algorithms
Which govern the inflections of global currency
The digital framework is building out day and night
The individual human has always been Unreliably programmed and
This will change

Money the constant, the human the variable
"This is to inform you your account is overdrawn"
The Gray Man reads the New York Times
He watches CNN
He knows what Davos and Brussels and the City of London
And Beijing give him to know
The medical cartel is neutral
It flies under no political banner
It alters all populations
For the sake of Survival of the species
Stimulus response
The Gray Man reads the New York Times
He watches CNN
He knows what he is supposed to know
He is educated
He grasps the essentials
Every datum proceeds from prior data in an unbroken chain
The system nods at the Gray Man
"You're on the right track, you've always been on the right track"
When the Gray Man hates
He knows who to attack, who to go after
He wants to become a sharper instrument
In the war against the ignorant
He wants to enlist in an army and wear a uniform
He dreams of clicking his heels and saluting
He wants to stand a post
The Gray Man reads the New York Times
He watches CNN
He drives his children to school
Wearing masks, they enter a shroud of plastic encasing the building

And disappear
Inside the gymnasium they stand in a long line
To receive their shots Fired
