Big rigs and other trucks are heading to Canada's capital, gathering momentum as they go!

These are the people who deliver the food and other essentials to our shops. Many of them aren't okay with being forced to take ineffective and dangerous injections for a mild, endemic, common cold virus!

I captured great footage of this historic moment, as the Freedom Convoy rolled through BC's Interior, headed toward Alberta and then across the continent!

The support from the public was MASSIVE!
