

Truth Comes to Light Website Changes

Dear friends,

Regular visitors to the site will have noticed (and subscribers to our substack newsletter will have been notified) that I have not posted new articles since the beginning of 2025. This decision was made when I had to withdraw my full-time focus due to personal considerations. Also in the picture are the costs of security and maintaining this site in a location that protects free speech.

Truth Comes to Light has had a small number of wonderful supporters over the years and I am so grateful to each and every one. We were able to keep things going through the heaviest years of the covid planscandemic, although various versions of the same old nonsensical/diabolical “virus” narratives continue to arise.

I have been facing this decision for a while, but can't put it off any longer as the renewal payments for the security and hosting services for the site are due in a few weeks. I have decided to take the site down, at least for now. Instead, I will be reorganizing the Truth Comes to Light substack (<https://substack.com/@truthcomestolight>) and telegram accounts so that key PDF files and articles can be stored and shared there. When that happens, truthcomestolight.com will lead readers to the substack account. All additional channels will also be clearly listed there.

I may consider opening up substack paid subscriptions again, but only if I have the time and energy to update and expand our resources, and provide newsletters on a consistent basis, thereby offering more value to you, dear readers and friends.

My goal is to use the time I have available to better organize resources that educate us in the areas of personal freedom and privacy, the danger of all vaccines, hidden history of humanity, empowering innovations, etc. We'll see how this goes. This mysterious life that we all share can get in the way of the best laid plans.

The following channels for Truth Comes to Light will stay up:

Much love to you all...
