Brian Gerrish:

“What we are facing is calculated. And it’s a mistake to call it madness because it’s very precise, it’s very calculated. And we need to understand that in order to be able to deal with what we’re facing.”

Reiner Fuellmich:

“That’s very interesting to hear because we have come to the conclusion that the other side, as we call them, is using two major tools. One is, of course, psychology – psychological operations. And of course the other, which transports this psychological operation, is the mainstream media.”
