“Forget the politicians. The politicians are put there to give you the idea you have freedom of choice. You don’t. You have no choice. You have owners. They own you. They own everything. They own all the important land, they own and control the corporations that’ve long since bought and paid for, the Senate, the Congress, the state houses, the city halls, they got the judges in their back pocket, and they own all the big media companies so they control just about all of the news and the information you get to hear. They got you by the balls. They spend billions of dollars every year lobbying to get what they want. Well, we know what they want. They want more for themselves and less for everybody else. But I’ll tell you what they don’t want. They don’t want a population of citizens capable of critical thinking. They don’t want well-informed, well-educated people capable of critical thinking. They’re not interested in that. That doesn’t help them.”

~ George Carlin

The misconceptions and 'beliefs' by the masses in this country, and the world, are staggeringly naïve; so much so as to be the lynchpin of universal ignorance. The asinine and preposterous idea of voting as sacred, and the reliance on masters instead of self, has brought about such dependence on the state and the master class, as to have almost single-handedly destroyed the independence of man. This is what I refer to as a master/slave relationship, where all confidence is misplaced, logic is abandoned, reason is lost, and common sense disappears. This happens every time trust for one's own life and freedom is consigned to those claiming to be 'leaders' of man. There are no such leaders, as no man has any right to control or hold power over another without the total destruction of liberty becoming the resulting outcome. To think otherwise is simply an exercise in idiocy.

The quest for power and control over all began long ago; in fact, it began at the beginning. Those who seek to rule have always been among us, but they never had the power to do so until the people themselves acquiesced and allowed it. As time passed, and so-called 'progress' developed into what we call the modern world, technology expanded into everyday life, communication became instant; thereby causing the mass delivery of propaganda and lies to consume most all. With the advent of this new modern world, a hotbed of intense micro-management of people became the norm. Population growth coincided with the 'advancement' of humanity, and control over the many had to rely on voluntary submission instead of brute force, as was purposely designed, until finally, we reached a point where no free nation existed on earth. The incremental destruction of the individual, the incremental dumbing down of society, the incremental dependence on the state, and the incremental abandonment of freedom, all allowed for the fully regulated world we live in today to exist. The result of this atrocious metamorphosis brought about global rule by the few, and this will continue to be the prevailing system until and unless the bulk of the general populations decide to become responsible for themselves, and discontinue any belief or adherence to the state.

Who are those who run and control the world? Is it a conspiracy? Why is this important? Why do most all know little if anything about this controlling cabal? The information presented here, and in the reference provided, is not new, and can be researched by anyone. It has been available for a long time, so why is this never spoken about or reported by any mainstream and most alternative sources? This may seem puzzling, but it is certainly not, as those who control the world obviously control what is reported as news as well.

There are a few thousand institutional investment firms that own every large bank, every large corporation, every large investment firm, every 'news' outlet, every large communication company, every large pharmaceutical company, every large transportation company; in other words, most every large company on earth is owned by these institutional investors. In turn, the small institutional investment firms are owned by larger institutional investment firms, and the larger investment firms, are owned by even larger investment firms. The two institutional investment companies that are the major owners and controllers of all the others in the world are Vanguard Holdings and Blackrock, and Vanguard is the largest shareholder (owner) of Blackrock. What this means is that Vanguard and Blackrock own and control this planet.

They own virtually all big companies, and all the institutional investors of those companies, and in turn, have a monopoly over almost everything on earth. In addition, Blackrock, whose largest shareholder is Vanguard, is the only private company that works with, and has access to the Federal Reserve Central Bank and the Treasury. Blackrock lends money to, and is the main advisor to the central bank, and develops the software structure of the Federal Reserve, but the controlling shareholder of Blackrock is still Vanguard. These two companies own and control, and have a monopoly over life

Reports show that the top 1% in the world owns more than the other 99% combined, but it is actually even more sinister. In 2017, well over 80% of all earned money was collected by this 1%, and is now certainly higher, especially after this 'covid' scam allowed the billionaires to greatly increase their income and net worth. Consider this fact, and then consider that Vanguard and Blackrock sit atop, own, and control most of that 1%; are closing in on $20 trillion of worth, which means that a very tiny fraction of that 1% controls almost 100% of everything.

Over 90% of the international mainstream media is owned and controlled by nine conglomerates, which in turn are owned and controlled by Vanguard and Blackrock, which also owns and controls most all the other institutions that hold the stock of these media companies. The same holds true for big tech, the food industry, the travel industry, the pharmaceutical industry, and every other large industry worldwide. While ownership is spread, the owners (Vanguard and Blackrock) of the owners, including the assets of the NGOs, tax-free foundations, banks, insurance companies, and others, sit at the top of the pyramid of power. In fact, these foundations and investment funds are the richest families, and many stay forever hidden, with the exception of the few. Bill Gates, Warren Buffet, George Soros, the Clinton's, the Bush's, the Rockefellers, the Rothschilds, and others are known, but most are not. Vanguard is a private corporation, and does not disclose its shareholders, so they can hide in plain sight; never divulging their ownership of the world. All of these players are directly and indirectly connected with each other, and the top few pull the strings of the planet's economic systems.

Yes, Gates, Soros, the Rockefellers, the Rothschilds, the Royal Families, the Vatican, the top-level Zionists, the Morgan's, the Bush's, the Clinton's, Klaus Schwab and the WEF, the UN, and many others are known, but many of the most evil and powerful controllers remain hidden in the shadows, while they manage all global networks. These are the owners of the rest of us, while their pawns in governments around the world do the bidding of their masters.

Most today think in terms of politics, and believe that politicians and the state players are in charge. This is idiotic nonsense, as the 'covid' hoax revealed. Virtually every country on earth acted in concert, and in the exact same manner at the same time. This would be not only absurd, but a complete impossibility unless a top-down conspiracy were in place, and being guided by the very few. Nearly every country in the world destroyed its own economies, its own citizens, and mandated similar if not identical policies meant to take total control over entire populations. If a large portion of the masses cannot understand the scope of this madness, there is no hope for humanity, for this world is now under the thumb of the few most powerful, who own and control most all the monetary systems, assets, land, medical care, pharmaceuticals, 'education' facilities, travel, banking, lawmaking, enforcement agencies, militaries, media, and have the ability to alter the psychological makeup of those they do not purposely murder by injection, torture, or starvation.

For those of you who succumb to the criminal and fraudulent voting process, those who look to fake prophets instead of self, those expecting redemption from the state; remember that you are playing directly into the hands of those monsters who rule over you. You will suffer the severe consequences of your actions to such a degree that all that has happened in the past will seem mild by comparison, as your lives will be relegated to that of a slave.

"It is incredible how as soon as a people become subject, it promptly falls into such complete forgetfulness of its freedom that it can hardly be roused to the point of regaining it, obeying so easily and willingly that one is led to say that this people has not so much lost its liberty as won its enslavement."
