Societal lockdowns are greatly impacting us all while simultaneously eclipsing the wider horizon of abrupt climate and biosphere collapse. All the while covert climate engineering operations continue to derail and disrupt Earth's life support systems. The danger posed by the ongoing atmospheric aerosol spraying operations cannot be overstated.

Are the aircraft spraying programs dispersing more than just the already identified toxic climate engineering elements? Where do we go from here? The latest installment of Global Alert News is below.

For those that have not yet seen our recent post on "The Dimming", it is a groundbreaking documentary that is currently in production. This documentary film will provide answers and proof of the ongoing climate engineering / weather warfare operations. Below is a 4+ minute trailer on the upcoming film.

This is what aerosol particulate dispersions look like in the Eastern US in March.
