"The question we need to ask is:
who is in charge of things on planet Earth and why are they behaving this way?"

Former Assistant Secretary of HUD Catherine Austin Fitts

Transcript of Introduction to Video Below

"Tonight I have a special episode for you. We're going to be joined by former assistant HUD Secretary Catherine Austin Fitts.

Now this will be one of the most important episodes that Catherine has ever done as she goes on record exposing the master plan being rolled out by powerful covert elements in government, industry, and the media.

These forces intend to put in place a massive global control grid engineered from an ominous space infrastructure using tools like entrainment mind control social engineering and social manipulation to achieve total dominance over the population Catherine introduces us to the idea of AI superpower, as being in a deep power struggle for supremacy over the internet of things using a kind of Skynet. Can we regain the initiative from a lawless marauding group of elites who have no regard for humanity's future?"
