

The Awakening Springs Unstoppable

People don't realize the effects of their actions, words and decisions as they seem to take so long to take effect in the long run. That's a manifestation of the semi-conscious mind at work. We expect quick results when so much is way deeper than surface appearances and understandings.

I'm addressing the awakening and those working to effect it. If these controllers can work their nefarious program this slowly over centuries, so must we be willing to see our desired arousal of humanity in many ways. Admittedly we need something fast and furious in light of what they're foisting upon humanity, but it's an organic process, much like spring reaching the roots and branches of budding nature which blossoms in the crescendo of life.

Seemingly slowly, yet all encompassing and of a synchronized and massively magnificent magnitude – a wondrous demonstration of irrepressible life!

Don't Be Fooled

On their imposed time frame and mindset we may appear to be weak and powerless. That's a total illusion, a lie of the baser sort designed to engender weakness and a lack of fight. We are everything. Our united stand in conscious awareness and brotherhood is exactly what they fear and are trying to dispel at every cost.

That's why it's time to put the pedal to the metal.

Defy them. Glory in your awareness and freedom. Be bold and brash in the face of whatever they throw at us. Our fire is what is setting their cobweb of deceit aflame and they know it...but never mind them. Our concentration needs to be on manifesting the Truth. Their mechanisms are in place to discourage initiative, any sense of freedom or autonomy, and our clear and given knowledge of personal sovereignty.

Screw them. United we stand. And march forward we will. Unrepressed. Truth cannot be stopped.

All the hocus-pocus of media entrainment has one goal – disempowerment. They cannot kill our bodies as hard as they try, they cannot suppress love and truth, and they cannot stop the tide of the awakening, despite the naysayers and critics. We are it. As sure as the tide comes and goes, as sure as the sun sets and rises, the spiraling nature of existence has put a definite period on this march to dystopia, no matter what insane conflagration might befall us as they perform their desperate death throes.

Happy Days

This might sound shallow to some but this is the case. We have a LOT to be happy about. The exposure of their cruel intent, their psychopathic maneuverings, and the brash and blatant designs of their programs are out in the open. Wide open. Those who are willing to see are clearly able to see now. It's something to take great heart in.

Granted, it's sad for those who refuse to look. They apparently haven't gotten the memo yet. But many will in the days to come. You can count on that.

We need to keep our chins up and looking into the light. It takes some concentration when the news is so foreboding everyday, but do it we must. Not ignorantly or Pollyanna-ish, but with real determined wisdom and knowledge. We're facing a change the world has never seen – a global reconstruction which these fascist controllers want to reconstruct enroute. Sorry, a new age is dawning boys.

They're usurpers, shallow magicians of sorts, making their play for our planet that was designed for love and harmony. Out with the bastards, they're lying thieves wanting to steal our energy and home.

It's time to manifest our true selves, true heart, true spirit and true claim to our heritage.

Do it – and enjoy it! It's a wonderful time to be alive!

Know you are not alone!

Love always,

Zen
